

ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

Winning Hearts, Opening Minds

Each day, lives are enriched by the companionship and services dogs provide. "Pit bull" dogs can earn $1000 for qualifying* organizations by winning an Animal Farm Foundation Achievement Award.

To qualify, the dog and owner duo honored by the award must work together to win hearts and open minds, breaking stereotypes and disproving myths for all "pit bull" dogs. The goal of this award is to honor those who are making a difference and working towards a world where "pit bull" dogs are accepted as individuals.

*Qualifying programs must be run through a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization.

From shelter dog to community sweetheart, Lill and her human companion are working together to improve the lives of animals. Now adopted, Lill fills the role of a shelter mascot, regularly visiting elementary schools to teach the children the importance of being kind to animals. When she is not working in the schools, Lill spends her days at the shelter, greeting potential adopters and making sure everyone knows that dogs are individuals!
